

1. Which of the following is the best example of collective behavior?
 - a. Students getting ready for their laboratory class
 - b. Basketball players practicing for their next game
 - c. Party people dancing to the rhythm

2. How does emergent-norm theory view crowds?
 - a. Impulsive and irrational
 - b. Emotional and easily swayed
 - c. Responsive and reasonable

3. Concertgoers are what type of crowds?
 - a. Conventional crowd
 - b. Expressive crowd
 - c. Acting crowd

4. Sandra and her team started to mobilize volunteers to help them campaign about the use of eco-friendly packaging with the goal of influencing their local policies. In which stage of the social movement life cycle does this fall?
 - a. Preliminary stage
 - b. Coalescence stage
 - c. Institutionalization stage

5. The New Age movement rose in the Western world in the 1980s. This movement highlights the spiritual authority of the self. What type of social movement is this?
 - a. Reform movement
 - b. Redemptive movement
 - c. Revolutionary movement