

1. A subfield of anthropology that makes use of fieldwork and participant-observation to understand cultural diversity
 - a. Cultural anthropology
 - b. Biological anthropology
 - c. Archaeology

2. A research area under archaeology that is concerned with the changes in human structures
 - a. Paleoanthropology
 - b. Human Biology
 - c. Primatology

3. What statement is NOT true about language?
 - a. Human language is considered a closed system.
 - b. Language serves as the main medium to pass on the culture to the next generation.
 - c. All languages in the world are symbolic systems.

4. An approach that proposes to analyze culture in its own context
 - a. Culture and personality
 - b. Cultural materialism
 - c. Historical particularism

5. Under the approach of cultural materialism, to which social level does the church belong?
 - a. Infrastructure
 - b. Structure
 - c. Superstructure