

Directions: Choose the letter of the correct answer.

1. Which of the following refers to associations with a broad area of land or water?
  - a. Habitat
  - b. Ecosystem
  - c. Biome
  - d. Landscape

2. Aquatic biomes are distinguished from each other mainly because of which factor?
  - a. Temperature
  - b. Salinity
  - c. Dissolved Oxygen
  - d. Depth

3. Scientists have partitioned the ocean in terms of depth, in terms of light exposure, and other means to classify zones. The seafloor is generally regarded as which zone?
  - a. Photic Zone
  - b. Aphotic Zone
  - c. Benthic Zone
  - d. Pelagic Zone

4. This biome occurs where freshwater meets saltwater.
  - a. Estuary
  - b. Wetland
  - c. Ocean
  - d. Spring

5. Which of the following are considered wetland biomes?
  - a. Mudflats and Bogs
  - b. Marshes and Swamps
  - c. Both a and b
  - d. Neither a nor b

Biomes of Planet Earth

Practice Questions

Directions: Think quick! Identify the concept being described:

6. The continent of Antarctica is characteristic of which biome?
7. Coniferous forests include temperate rain forests and another habitat which is?
8. The process where semi-arid regions are changed due to human activities.
9. A continuously frozen subsoil characteristic of the tundra.
10. The vegetation of which biomes are adapted to periodic fires?

To get more Biology review materials, visit
<https://filipiknow.net/biology-review/>

To God be the glory!